NEW STATE BUILDING

New State Building as proposed by architects is being viewed by Gov. Frank G. Clement, Mayor William B. Ingram, Jr., right, and Benjamin F. Blakey, assistant secretary of the Tennessee Federation of Democratic Leagues, Inc. left. The architectural drawing was revealed to the public during a reception in Mayor Ingram's office last Thursday afternoon, at which time he presented the deed to the site on which the state building will be erected, to Gov. Clement. Immediately before that Gov. Clement presented a check for $400,000 to Walter Simmons, head of Memphis Housing Authority, as payment for the site at Main St. and Poplar Ave. Gov. Clement also revealed that a new state mental institute will be erected at Arlington at the cost of $9 million, to be expanded to $15 million.

Half Million Donated NAACP's Defense Fund

NEW YORK, N.Y. — An anonymous gift of one-half million dollars — the largest single contribution in civil rights history — was given to the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, announced Jack Greenberg, director-counsel of the Fund.

Founded by the NAACP, but now separate and apart, the Legal Defense Fund serves as the legal arm of the entire civil rights movement.

Its attorneys represent the Association, CORE, SCLC, SNCC and others seeking civil rights.

Greenberg said the gift was made in anticipation that "tens of thousands, who will presumably be arrested in future non-violent demonstrations, will need legal representation."

Bomb Hurlled At Freedom House

CANTON, Miss. — Freedom House, CORE's center, was hit by an explosive hurled against the building shortly after 1 A.M. on June 8.

Nobody was injured because the bomb bounced off the front wall and exploded on the sidewalk, Landy McNair, a CORE task force worker and James Collier were inside the building at the time.

A couple of weeks previous three shots were fired into Freedom House but nobody was hurt. During the week of May 4th a man claiming he represented the Klan phoned and threatened to burn down the building. In April, the owner of the building had his fire insurance cancelled, reportedly.

On May 7th a man in a white hood cape drove past Freedom House and fired a pistol in the direction of a group of children who had spotted his car and started shouting "There he is!"

The June 8th explosion came 10 days after Canton's second Freedom Day in which 55 demonstrators were arrested. Many of them, including CORE Field Secretary Edward Hollander, are still in jail. Attorneys are trying to get the cases transferred to federal court.

LILLIAN B. COFFEY

Estimated 4,000 Attracted To Rites For Mrs. Lillian Coffey

CHICAGO, Ill. — Funeral services of Mrs. Lillian Brooks Coffey, who was head of the women's department of the Church of God in Christ, were held Saturday, June 13, at Tabernacle Baptist church here in Chicago.

As head of the Church of God in Christ Women's Department, Mrs. Coffey (affectionately known as Mother Coffey) administered a religious and welfare program that extended throughout the United States and around the world. The women's department supports missions in nearly 30 foreign countries.

She died June 9 after being in failing health for several years.

The eulogy was delivered by Bishop O. T. Jones, of Philadelphia, Pa., senior Bishop and titular head of the Church of God in Christ, with headquarters in Memphis, Tenn. Nearly 400 persons attended the funeral and wake service.

Mrs. Coffey was national supervisor of the women's department since 1945. In 1951 she called the first session of the convention in Los Angeles, Calif. Since that time, conventions have been held annually throughout the United States.

Surviving Mrs. Coffey are two daughters, Mrs. Dolores Payne and Mrs. Elise Lavern Rogers, a sister, Mrs. Elsie Fullilove and five grandchildren. She rose from conductor of street corner revivals in Chicago to one of America's top Negro women leaders.

Born in Paris, Tenn., the spiritual leader moved to Memphis, before moving to Chicago in 1913. It was there that her real interest in the Church of God in Christ was kindled.

NATIONAL DEFENSE

In the years following, she evangelized in Wisconsin, Ohio, Michigan, and Georgia. Many members were added to the church through her unceasing efforts.

In 1945, Mrs. Coffey was appointed national supervisor, succeeding the late Mrs. Lizzie Robinson, who was the first national supervisor and organizer of the Church of God in Christ women's work.

During World War II, she traveled thousands of miles to many bases and training centers. In recognition of these services, she was cited by the Women's Army for National Defense.

The prestige accorded Mrs. Coffey is accredited to her "unselfish devotion to humanity."

A prime example is the Lillian Brooks Coffey Rest Home in Detroit, Mich., dedicated as

Vandalism Continues On Gausco

When a huge stone came hurling through their picture window at 2337 Drake St. about three weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Fisher thought that it was one of those "one in a lifetime" experiences and had the pane restored.

But last Saturday morning at 2:28 a.m., the window smasher returned and blasted out the glass with a section of a tree trunk, and then sped away in a brown and white 1963 hard-top Chevrolet.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher live at the corner of Gausco and Drake, an area where Negro families have been having increasing trouble with young teenage whites who litter the well-kept lawns with beer cans and other debris each evening, and use the street as a dragstrip.

The nearby Belvue Freez maltshop at Gausco and Bellevue is said to be a hang-

Negroes Of By Gone Days

DAVID RUGGLES
The Journalist
18th In Series

Negro newspapers like Frederick Douglass' NORTH STAR and magazines like David Ruggles' MIRROR OF LIBERTY assumed leadership in voicing the aspirations and goals of the Negro in addition to serving as a forum for the antislavery movement in the decades prior to the Civil War.

Among the race champions of this period were such men as Charles Bennett Ray, William Still and David Ruggles who made conspicuous contributions on the antislavery lecture platform and in their literary efforts. They also served as agents, organizers and officers of the major Abolitionist groups as well. Both Ruggles and Still were in charge of the key Underground Railroad Stations in New York City and Philadelphia.

David Ruggles was born in 1810 of unmixed African parentage. He lived throughout his life in New York, where he was known as an eternal enemy of slaveholders. He was responsible for bringing to that city scores of fugitives who escape to freedom he aided by means of the Underground Railroad. Among these was Frederick Douglass.

Along with his antislavery activities, Ruggles was an important official in the state vigilance committee to protect free Negroes from kidnapping and in defiance of the Federal Fugitive Slave Law, to shield fugitives from recapture. Then as now, integration leaders were opposed to building Negro churches and schools because it fostered the spirit of prejudice. Ruggles was among those who refused to recognize any special needs and problems of the Negro people requiring separate institutions or organizations. He encouraged the Negro to become part and parcel of the general community and insisted that Negro people go only to those schools and churches open to all races.

The Garrisonians also supported this position through the LIBERATOR and NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY STANDARD. Because Ruggles was deeply interested in moral, social and political progress of the free Negroes in the North, he continued to publish for several years his quarterly magazine, THE MIRROR OF LIBERTY, advocating the rights of his people.

Historians state that his writings showed unusual wit and logic as illustrated by his pamphlet entitled DAVID M. REES, M.D., USED UP. In this incisive essay, Ruggles attacked those who desired to colonize the Negroes in Africa. He continued to use his pen as an effective instrument in behalf of the cause of the Negro until his death on Dec. 26, 1849 at the age of 39.

Small Boy Injured During Gang Fight

Seek Slayer Of Victim Who Died Three Times

A 31-year-old man, who arrived at John Gaston hospital on June 9, with no heart beat or pulse, and who "died" again on the operating table, only to be brought back to life, succumbed for the last time on last Friday from a knife wound in the heart.

Paul Lawrence Smith of 1082 W. Holmes rd., was found dying on the corner of Beale and Hernando.

Wanted for the slaying and still at large is Lewis Williams, 23, who disappeared immediately after the stabbing.

When brought to the hospital, doctors opened Smith's chest. By massaging the heart, they were able to restore breathing and a heart beat. His heart stopped 15 minutes later, and by massaging it again, the doctors managed to revive him.

VICTIM AGGRESSOR

Capt. E. C. Swann said that Lawrence Reeser, Nathaniel Lewis and a Lewis Williams, Jr., were standing on the corner of Hernando and Beale when an argument developed about one of the men having stolen a woman's coat.

Smith reportedly pulled a knife, and Reeser took it away from him. Reeser told Smith to drop the argument, but he continued it.

Prodded on by Nathaniel Lewis, Williams and Smith went into the alley to settle the argument, and once there, Williams pulled a knife and stabbed the victim just under the heart.

All of the men who were involved in the dispute with Smith ran away and left him dying on the sidewalk.

It was thought that after physicians had revived Smith and sewed up his heart that he had a good chance for recovery, but on Friday he died.

Smith was estranged from his wife and children, according to a report.

GEORGE GRANT

Inspection Men Need Inspection

George Grant, Owen college librarian of 1327 Englewood st., blamed voter registration stickers and refusal to tip moochers last week for the refusal of a worker to give him a No. 2 sticker at the Inspection Station after his car passed all tests.

While watching other cars go through the section where the worker refused to allow his car to clear, he was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct and resisting arrest.

Brought before Judge Beverly Boushe, he was fined $20 and costs on each charge.

Grant told the Tri-State Defender that he was driving by and decided to take his car through. "On my first trip I was told that my headlights were low, that my license plate was not illuminated and that my stop light was not functioning properly."

STOPLIGHT WORKING

The librarian said he went to a service station and had his lights adjusted, a bulb installed.

Shot In Knee During Battle

A battle over which gang would rule the corner of Trigg and Florida on last Friday night ended with a six-year-old boy shot in the knee and seven adults and three juveniles charged with common affray.

One juvenile was charged also with carrying a pistol and adult held without bond for assault to murder, carrying a pistol in addition to the other charge.

All 10 have been held to the action of the Shelby County Grand Jury.

The group includes John L. Scott, 19, of 175 W. Utah; assault to murder, carrying a pistol and common affray.

Frank Cole, 17, carrying a pistol, larceny and common affray.

Others charged with common affray are Albert Owens, 22, of 244 Richmond; Willie Lee Wilson, 23, of 1923 Swift; Er-

Wilkins Named Recipient Of Spingarn Medal

NEW YORK — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, has been named the 49th Spingarn Medalist. Dr. J. M. Tinsley, chairman of the award committee, announced here June 11.

The gold medal, awarded annually to a Negro American for distinguished achievement, will be presented to Wilkins on June 23 during the 55th Annual NAACP Convention in Washington, D. C., June 22-27.

The citation hails Wilkins as "a great American who has made a distinctive and immeasurable contribution to the advancement of the American people and the national purpose."

Instituted in 1914 by the late J.E. Spingarn, then chairman of the NAACP Board of Directors, the award has long been regarded as the most coveted in its field. Among others who have received the medal are Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, Miss Marian Anderson, Jackie Robinson, Judge Thurgood Marshall, Dr. Martin Luther King, Mrs. Daisy Bates and the Little Rock Nine, Langston Hughes and Dr. Robert C. Weaver. Last year it was awarded posthumously to Medgar W. Evers, the slain NAACP field secretary for the State of Mississippi.

In his will, J. E. Spingarn left a fund sufficient to continue to award "to perpetuate the lifelong interest of my brother, Arthur B. Spingarn, of my wife, Amy E. Spingarn, and of myself in the achievements of the American Negro." At the time of his death in 1939, Mr. Spingarn was president of the NAACP. He was succeeded by his brother, the Association's present president.

Wilkins joined the NAACP staff in 1931 as assistant executive secretary. In 1955, the Board of Directors named him executive secretary to succeed the late Walter White. A former newspaperman, Wilkins has also served the NAACP as acting executive secretary in the absence of Mr. White, as administrator, and as editor of THE CRISIS, the NAACP monthly magazine.

MISS VARNELL LOGAN

Off To 'Crossroads Africa'

Lionel A. Arnold, dean of LeMoyné, and Miss Varnell E. Logan of 1612 South Third, a senior at the college, left Memphis early this week for New York City where they are joining 300 other participants in Operation Crossroads Africa.

Dean Arnold will be the leader of a group of 13 students scheduled to go to the Tigre Province in Ethiopia.

Miss Logan will be among a group of students going to Sierra Leone in West Africa.

Operation Crossroads Africa is a project enabling students to work, play and live with African students during the summer months.

Both left Memphis Monday, Dean Arnold by plane and Miss Logan by train. Miss Logan was traveling with Miss Beverly Williams, a Memphis coed at Howard University who also is participating in the project.

All students participating in the project were required to raise a portion of their expenses.

Members of the project are due back in New York the latter part of August.

Bus Will Leave For World's Fair June 24

A chartered Greyhound bus from Humboldt, Tenn., to the New York World's Fair will be leaving the city on Wednesday, June 24, and returning one week later on July 1, and persons who wish to take the trip still have time to make reservations.

The round-trip fare of $91.25 includes motel reservations. In Humboldt call 784-1058 or 397-1293 in Memphis for information.

ed over his license and noticed that there was nothing wrong with the brake light.

"On my second trip every thing checked out all right but the stoplight," Grant said, "so I drove around the block and had my brother Maurice to check them while I drove, and he found them to be all right."

When he went through the line the third time, Grant said the man who had refused to give him a clearance on the line, and the man who was there let him pass.

"Just as the man was about to put on the No. 2 sticker," Grant said, "the fellow who had been off the line came running and said, 'Don't let him go through. Make him go and get a light switch.'"

CALL POLICE

Grant said he took his car outside and returned to watch the man inspect other light switches. Shortly afterward, he said, a man came and told him that "no loitering" would be permitted there. When he refused to go, police were called.

"They ran up and grabbed me, and I told them, 'Just a minute, you aren't supposed to manhandle me. I want to know why I am being arrested.'"

"They twisted my arm, and said 'Come on nigger,' and put handcuffs on me."

"When they searched me, they discovered a pad on which I had written the agenda of an NAACP meeting on, and they made a lot over that, calling me a 'nigger NAACP lawyer.' One told the other, 'We ought to let him run so we can shoot him.'"

BROTHER ARRESTED

"When my brother came up to see what was going on, one of the fellows in the inspection said, 'He's with him. Get him too,' and he was placed under arrest," Grant explained.

Grant said the patrolmen called their superior officer, and when he arrived he was just as discourteous as the others.

After being released on bond that night, the librarian said the police garage wanted to charge him $7.50 for towing his car, although it was driven just around the block. He had to pay it the following day, however, before it was released to him.

Several persons, including one Negro, appeared as witnesses against Grant in court. He was found guilty on both counts. Atty. Russell B. Sugarman, Jr., was his lawyer in the case. Charges against Maurice Grant were dropped. When Grant went through the Inspection Stations the following day, he received his sticker.

On previous trips through the station, the librarian stated, he has been approached for tips by workers who suggest, "A good, cold beer would taste mighty good on a hot day like today."

He said his failure to comply with the suggestion along with the "Register to Vote" stickers on the car might have been the source of his trouble.

STREETS UNSAFE

According to Capt. E. C. Swann, head of Homicide Division, there had been a fight between Mason and Ernest Cole, and Mason had threatened Cole with bodily harm if he did not pay him for hanging on a certain street corner.

Capt. Swann said that the Police Department had received complaints from residents because it had gotten unsafe to walk the streets in the area because of the threats and cursing.

On Friday night, Mason told Cole not to come around the corner, and the two began fighting. In the battle, Mason whipped Cole, while Walton and King watched.

AT TIM'S CAFE

Part of the gang assembled at Tim's Cafe at Trigg and Kansas, and Cole went to the home of Scott and told him about being beaten. There they were joined by Frank Cole, no relation to Ernest Cole. Ernest suggested that they try find the boys who had beaten them.

The two gangs met in the cafe, and all began throwing bottles. Scott, who had brought a butcher knife from home, cut Albert Owen on the left hand and Mason on the left shoulder.

Later in the night, Scott and Frank Cole went to Cole's house and got a pistol which had been stolen from the McNairy house.

As they were going down a street, they saw three of the youths approaching with sticks and bottles.

MISSION WORK

Mrs. Coffey's keen interest in education also made her one of the chief supporters of the Saints Junior College, in Lexington, Miss. Through the efforts of the women's department, she erected a $75,000 dining room, called the "Lizzie Robinson Hall," on the campus of the school.

The name Lillian Brooks Coffey is also well-known on the foreign fronts of the Church of God in Christ. Thousand of dollars are collected by the Women's Department and donated to hospitals, orphanages, schools and church construction in foreign countries. She is responsible for the electric power system that spans the bush area of Montgomery County in Liberia, West Africa. "We have flooded the jungle with electric light," she said.

Mrs. Coffey also organized the only modern clinic for Africans in Montgomery County. She established and equipped the clinic from thousands of dollars raised in the U. S. to support mission work.

in the way and the bullet entered his knee.

As all of the gang scattered, Frank Cole got the pistol from Scott and fired in the air as the police were arriving. He was arrested on the corner of Trigg and Pennsylvania.

Judge Kenneth Turner, during a special hearing on Monday morning, warned youth that he was not going to tolerate gang war by youngsters on the streets of Memphis and held the three juveniles to the action of the Grand Jury.

Police Chief J. C. MacDonald has vowed to help make the streets of Memphis safe from young thugs, and promised a clean up in the South Memphis area.

SAW CAR

Mrs. Fisher said that it was a pair of white youths who were involved in both incidents, and that she and her husband looked out just in time to see a boy jump back in the car. A street light nearby gave them a better than ordinary view of the thugs.

"The first time it happened," Mrs. Fisher said, "I was studying for a final test at Owen college and had just put down my book when the stone came through the window."

"Police were called," she said, "but they didn't show any great interest in what we said. They didn't even look at the brick which was used to smash the window."

The officers who answered the call last Saturday morning, Mrs. Fisher explained, took more interest in the matter and carried the wood with them to the police station to have it inspected for fingerprints.

Other Negro residents on Gausco have complained to police about difficulties they are currently having with youngsters who come to the area every evening after 4 p.m. Mrs. Fisher said that her yard is littered with trash by the youth, but that she picks it up every morning.

Dr. Flowers At A&amp;I Victim Of Heart Attack

NASHVILLE — Dr. Walter A. Flowers, field services and extension director for Tennessee A&I State University's School of Agriculture and Home Economics, victim of a heart attack, was buried here last week.

Dr. Flowers' attack which came unexpectedly while viewing television following a full day of activities, shocked the university and the community which had scarcely recovered from the unexpected death less than five weeks before Dr. Major F. Spaulding, Dean of A&I's School of Agriculture and Home Economics, Dr. Spaulding also succumbed to a heart attack. Both were officers of Clark Memorial Methodist church here.

Dr. Flowers, stricken in his home, was rushed to a local hospital where he died. His wife, Mrs. Mattie C. Flowers, associate professor and head of home economics at A&I, was with him when the end came.

A native of Forest, Miss., Dr. Flowers held degrees from Alcorn (Miss.) College and Iowa State University at Ames, Ia., taught at Prairie View, Wiley, and Bishop Colleges in Texas and West Virginia State College, and had served the State Departments of Education in Texas and Mississippi. He was a trustee of Rust College at Holly Springs, Miss., and had been awarded honorary degrees by Rust and Texas College at Teller.

Since joining the A&I faculty in 1943, Dr. Flowers has aided greatly in expanding the teacher training and research programs in agriculture.

The university's president, W. S. Davis said, "the Commissioner of Education had just approved him as Interim Dean of the School of Agriculture and Home Economics (on Wednesday, May 20, 1964), replacing Dean M. F. Spaulding who succumbed to a heart attack last month. . . . Flowers will be difficult to replace."

He was a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. Immediate survivors include: a daughter, Mrs. Edward L. (Patricia) Whitmore, three grandsons — Walter Flowers, Edward Louis, and Carlton Copeland Whitmore — and

IT COSTS ONLY $30 and not $35 to enroll in summer courses at Booker T. Washington high school explained Joseph Westbrook, supervisor of the Board of Education. He said it costs $30 for a course in grades ninth through 12th and $15 each for grades seventh through eighth. In this column last week a disgruntled father told writers of this column that he had paid $35 to enroll his son and he complained that it cost too much.

He also said that he did not receive a receipt. Westbrook said that receipts are issued at the same time payment is made during enrollment. He went on to say that the summer session is operated on a non-profit basis. The registration fee is used to help pay teachers.

Appointed To TRAFICO Staff In Nashville

A former Booker T. Washington High school student, Charles C. Washburn, has been appointed to the staff of the Methodist Television, Radio and Film Commission, according to a recent announcement made in Nashville by Dr. Harry C. Spencer, general secretary of TRAFICO.

Washburn, 25, will be assistant director of the department of radio and television in Nashville, upon completing his requirement for a master's degree at Syracuse university in New York in August. Presently, he is a graduate assistant teaching courses in radio and TV production. He will receive a master of science degree in radio and television.

CHARLES WASHBURN, JR.

Prior to attending Syracuse, Washburn studied at the Milwaukee Institute of Technology in radio and TV production for two years. During the same time he was continuity director of WMVA-TV in Milwaukee.

A graduate of Kentucky State college in Frankfort, in 1963 he served on the staff of the American Negro Emancipation Centennial Authority in Chicago and produced a special for WNBQ-TV on the centennial.

In his new position, Washburn will be working with Nelson Price, department director, and will train ministers and laymen in the use of radio and television, work with the TRAFICO staff on production of new radio and TV programs, and serve as producers of some programs. Washburn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Washburn, of 1249 Quinn Ave., here.

Pair Convicted For Social Security Fraud

"Lawbreakers will be vigorously prosecuted for violations of the Social Security Act," the Memphis district manager of the Social Security Administration warned this week.

Warren Maddox said he has just learned that a public accountant and her assistant, both of Benton, Tenn., were convicted in Chattanooga on June 2 for having committed a total of eight violations.

Miss Mable Lewis, an accountant, was convicted on four counts of charging fees not authorized by Social Security. The fees were charged for performing services in connection with applications filed for persons claiming social security benefits.

Convicted along with Miss Lewis on two counts involving false information and statements which they gave or caused to be given to the Administration was her assistant, Claude Hicks.

NOT ENTITLED
The purpose of the false statements was to have social security benefits paid to another person not entitled to such payments.

"A fine of $500, or imprisonment of one year, or both, is provided in the Social Security Act as possible punishment for each conviction of unauthorized fee charging," Maddox said.

He added that any fee for services performed in a social security matter must be approved by the Social Security Administration, regardless of the amount, if the person charging it or receiving it is not an attorney.

"Even attorneys must obtain prior approval of fees exceeding certain amounts prescribed by Federal regulations," he said.

The conviction of the two in Benton should serve as a warning to all persons, Maddox stated.

Memphian Gets Psychology BA From Kalamazoo

Walter Lawrence Hall, son of Mrs. Ann Lawrence Weathers of 666 Pontotoc, and William F. Hall, Jr., of Detroit, was among the 157 seniors who received bachelor of arts degrees from Kalamazoo college at Kalamazoo, Mich.

A psychology major, Hall plans to enter graduate school in the fall. His senior project included work at the Wayne County General hospital at Eloise, Mich.

At Kalamazoo, he was a member of the Drama club, College Players, participated in such intramural sports as baseball and basketball and was a member of the K club.

Hall served as disc jockey and station manager of the campus radio station, president and secretary of the Century Forum Men's society, participated in the Showboat production and was president of the Inter-Society Council. He also belonged to the Psychology club.

The speaker at the graduation service last Sunday was John Ciardi, poetry editor of the "Saturday Review" and director of the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference.

Court Orders Ole Miss To Admit Donald

JACKSON, Miss. — A federal judge last week issued a temporary restraining order requiring University of Mississippi officials to admit 18-year old Cleveland Donald, Jr., a Negro transfer student, for the University's 1964 summer session, which began June 11.

Acting on a motion brought by NAACP Legal Defense Fund attorneys, Judge William Harold Cox of the Southern District of Mississippi enjoined further efforts to block Donald's immediate admission, thereby opening the door for the third Negro to enter that state's university.

In 1962, James H. Meredith became the first Negro to enter a previously segregated Mississippi college after lengthy litigation. Meredith graduated in August, 1963.

In June, 1963, Cleve McDowell became the first Negro to enter the University of Mississippi Law School, but was expelled in September after being apprehended with a gun on campus.

Donald is thus the only Negro in attendance at Ole Miss, as Legal Defense Fund attorneys are currently appealing McDowell's expulsion to federal court. They contend that McDowell had a right under state law to have a gun while traveling on the state highways.

Legal Defense Fund attorney Derrick A. Bell, appeared on Donald's behalf. He was joined in the action by Director-Counsel Jack Greenberg and Associate Counsel Constance Baker Motley in New York and by Carsey A. Hall, Fund cooperating attorney in Jackson.

ed over his license and noticed that there was nothing wrong with the brake light.

"On my second trip every thing checked out all right but the stoplight," Grant said, "so I drove around the block and had my brother Maurice to check them while I drove, and he found them to be all right."

"When he went through the line the third time, Grant said the man who had refused to give him a clearance on the line, and the man who was there let him pass.

"Just as the man was about to put on the No. 2 sticker," Grant said, "the fellow who had been off the line came running and said, 'Don't let him go through. Make him go and get a light switch.'"

CALL POLICE

Grant said he took his car outside and returned to watch the man inspect other light switches. Shortly afterward, he said, a man came and told him that "no loitering" would be permitted there. When he refused to go, police were called.

"They ran up and grabbed me, and I told them, 'Just a minute, you aren't supposed to manhandle me. I want to know why I am being arrested.'"

"They twisted my arm, and said 'Come on nigger,' and put handcuffs on me.

"When they searched me, they discovered a pad on which I had written the agenda of an NAACP meeting on, and they made a lot over that, calling me a 'nigger NAACP lawyer.' One told the other, 'We ought to let him run so we can shoot him.'"

BROTHER ARRESTED

"When my brother came up to see what was going on, one of the fellows in the inspection said, 'He's with him. Get him too,' and he was placed under arrest," Grant explained.

Grant said the patrolmen called their superior officer, and when he arrived he was just as discourteous as the others.

After being released on bond that night, the librarian said the police garage wanted to charge him $7.50 for towing his car, although it was driven just around the block. He had to pay it the following day, however, before it was released to him.

Several persons, including one Negro, appeared as witnesses against Grant in court. He was found guilty on both counts. Atty. Russell B. Sugar-

mon, Jr., was his lawyer in the case. Charges against Maurice Grant were dropped.

When Grant went through the inspection stations the following day, he received his sticker.

On previous trips through the station, the librarian stated, he has been approached for tips by workers who suggest, "A good, cold beer would taste mighty good on a hot day like today."

He said his failure to comply with the suggestion along with the "Register to Vote" stickers on the car might have been the source of his trouble.

STREETS UNSAFE

According to Capt. E. C. Swann, head of Homicide Division, there had been a fight between Mason and Ernest Cole, and Mason had threatened Cole with bodily harm if he did not pay him for hanging on a certain street corner. Capt. Swann said that the Police Department had received complaints from residents because it had gotten unsafe to walk the streets in the area because of the threats and cursing.

On Friday night, Mason told Cole not to come around the corner, and the two began fighting. In the battle, Mason whipped Cole, while Walton and King watched.

AT TIM'S CAFE

Part of the gang assembled at Tim's Cafe at Trigg and Kansas, and Cole went to the home of Scott and told him about being beaten. There they were joined by Frank Cole, no relation to Ernest Cole. Ernest suggested that they try find the boys who had beaten them.

The two gangs met in the cafe, and all began throwing bottles. Scott, who had brought a butcher knife from home, cut Albert Owen on the left hand and Mason on the left shoulder.

Later in the night, Scott and Frank Cole went to Cole's house and got a pistol which had been stolen from the McNairy house.

As they were going down a street, they saw three of the youths approaching with sticks and bottles.

MISSION WORK

Mrs. Coffey's keen interest in education also made her one of the chief supporters of the Saints Junior College, in Lemington, Miss. Through the efforts of the women's department, she erected a $75,000 dining room, called the "Lizzie Robinson Hall," on the campus of the school.

The name Lillian Brooks Coffey is also well-known on the foreign fronts of the Church of God in Christ. Thousand of dollars are collected by the Women's Department and donated to hospitals, orphanages, schools and church construction in foreign countries. She is responsible for the electric power system that spans the bush area of Montgomery County in Liberia, West Africa. "We have flooded the jungle with electric light," she said.

As all of the gang scattered, Frank Cole got the pistol from Scott and fired in the air as the police were arriving. He was arrested on the corner of Trigg and Pennsylvania.

Judge Kenneth Turner, during a special hearing on Monday morning, warned youth that he was not going to tolerate gang war by youngsters on the streets of Memphis and held the three juveniles to the action of the Grand Jury.

Police Chief J. C. MacDonald has vowed to help make the streets of Memphis safe from young thugs, and promised a clean up in the South Memphis area.

SAW CAR

Mrs. Fisher said that it was a pair of white youths who were involved in both incidents, and that she and her husband looked out just in time to see a boy jump back in the car. A street light nearby gave them a better than ordinary view of the thugs.

"The first time it happened," Mrs. Fisher said, "I was studying for a final test at Owen college and had just put down my book when the stone came through the window."

"Police were called," she said, "but they didn't show any great interest in what we said. They didn't even look at the brick which was used to smash the window."

The officers who answered the call last Saturday morning, Mrs. Fisher explained, took more interest in the matter and carried the wood with them to the police station to have it inspected for fingerprints.

Other Negro residents on Gausco have complained to police about difficulties they are currently having with youngsters who come to the area every evening after 4 p.m. Mrs. Fisher said that her yard is littered with trash by the youth, but that she picks it up every morning.

Dr. Flowers At A&amp;I Victim Of Heart Attack

NASHVILLE — Dr. Walter A. Flowers, field services and extension director for Tennessee A&I State University's School of Agriculture and Home Economics, victim of a heart attack, was buried here last week.

Dr. Flowers' attack which came unexpectedly while viewing television following a full day of activities, shocked the university and the community which had scarcely recovered from the unexpected death less than five weeks before of Dr. Major F. Spaulding, Dean of A&I's School of Agriculture and Home Economics. Dr. Spaulding also succumbed to a heart attack. Both were officers of Clark Memorial Methodist church here.

Dr. Flowers, stricken in his home, was rushed to a local hospital where he died. His wife, Mrs. Mattie C. Flowers, associate professor and head of home economics at A&I, was with him when the end came.

A native of Forest, Miss., Dr. Flowers held degrees from Alcorn (Miss.) College and Iowa State University at Ames, Iowa. He taught at Prairie View, Wiley, and Bishop Colleges in Texas and West Virginia State College, and had served the State Departments of Education in Texas and Mississippi. He was a trustee of Rust College at Holly Springs, Miss., and had been awarded honorary degrees by Rust and Texas College at Tyler.

Since joining the A&I faculty in 1943, Dr. Flowers has aided greatly in expanding the teacher training and research programs in agriculture.

The university's president, W. S. Davis said, "The Commissioner of Education had just approved him as Interim Dean of the School of Agriculture and Home Economics (on Wednesday, May 20, 1964), replacing Dean M. F. Spaulding who succumbed to a heart attack last month. . . . Flowers will be difficult to replace."

In this column last week a disgruntled father told writers of this column that he had paid $35 to enroll his son and he complained that it cost too much.

He also said that he did not receive a receipt. Westbrook said that receipts are issued at the same time payment is made during enrollment. He went on to say that the summer session is operated on a non-profit basis. The registration fee is used to help pay teachers.

Framing A Poster? Yes-- That's Right

NEW YORK — Who ever heard of people writing in for a poster in order to frame a portion of it? Well, that's exactly what they are doing, declared Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP this week.

Wilkins said a 1964 poster appealing for NAACP membership, bearing a photograph of Mrs. Medgar W. Evers, has become the most popular advertisement the Association has ever produced. The NAACP National Office has been deluged with telephone calls and letters requesting copies of the poster ever since it was first displayed in New York City subways in May.

The photograph of Mrs. Evers, widow of the murdered NAACP Mississippi field secretary, is the one which first appeared in LLIFE Magazine, June 28, 1963.

Pastor & Wife To Be Honored At Pilgrim Church

Illinois U. Queen Finalist: All-Around American Girl

URBANA, Ill. — Post-graduation plans for Miss Marvina M. Randolph, a finalist in the recent University of Illinois May Queen contest, are teaching dance and physical education at Evanston Township high school and getting married.

A 21-year-old senior in dance education, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin O. Randolph, 4563 Oakwood, Chicago (15).

Illinois Dign of Women Miriam A. Sheldon points out that the seven May Queen finalists are "the outstanding senior women on campus."

Miss Randolph's credentials include being on the College of Physical Education dean's list five times, junior class honors, a 4.1 all-university grade-point average on a five-point system and membership on Mortar Board, senior women's scholastic and activity honorary. She also was tapped for Shi-Ai, sophomore sorority women's activity honorary.

She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha social sorority where she has served as president and social chairman and is currently parliamentarian and rush chairman. A former student senator, Miss Randolph was a 1963 Homecoming Queen semi-finalist.

Dancing occupies most of her spare time. She was a member of the U. of I. modern dance group that was featured guest artists Feb. 29 at the third annual St. Louis (Mo.) Ballet Dance Festival.

Campus events that Miss Randolph has participated in are 1962 Spring Musical, "West Side Story"; Parich Musical, "Revelation in a Courthouse Park"; two dance division Mother's Day programs; several dance division dance concerts; dance day programs; and last year's NAA-CP benefit dance.

"I enjoyed it very much," says Miss Randolph of her student teaching last semester at Evanston Township high school.

She is engaged to Frank the Chicago Urban League and worked as a secretary for a business agency.

A 1960 Hyde Park High School graduate, she was selected by the girls as "Girl of the Year" her senior year. High school activities included cheerleader co-captain, Girls Athletic Association secretary, senior varieties co-chairman, student council and the national honor society.

Her parents work for the

MARVINIA M. RANDOLPH

Miss Randolph explains that she came here planning to enroll in chemistry. "I wanted to teach but I wasn't sure what subject."

Dancing was an obvious choice. Her parents had permitted her to take private dancing lessons for eight years at the Chicago Musical College. "With the condition that I also take piano lessons," she adds.

In June, she will receive her bachelor of science degree in physical education with a dance specialty.

She sews many of her own clothes and makes decorated candles as a hobby. Interested in arts and crafts, Miss Randolph also loves all sports, especially horseback riding. Bridge and reading are two more of her interests.

One of her biggest thrills at Illinois was making the trip to Pasadena, Calif., for the Rose Bowl game New Year's Day.

Before teaching this fall at Evanston, she plans to work this summer as a Chicago Transit Authority ticket agent; she held a similar position last summer. Two summers ago, she did volunteer work for

SERVING 1,000,000 NEGROES IN THE TRI-STATE AREA

Why We Need A Civil Rights Bill; To Help White Folks Too

Only In America

By HARRY GOLDEN

Jordan World's Fair Mural

I do not see how Robert Moses could have done it any other way. He had to deny requests to picket the Jordanian pavilion at the New York World's Fair.

The controversy concerns a mural in the Arab exhibit in which the Jordanians use space at the New York World's Fair for propaganda purposes in their declared hope to wipe out Israel and all its inhabitants.

If they want to indulge themselves in this bad taste, let them. The visitors to the Fair are not fools. I would hesitate to use pickets which only advertise the exhibit and bring more people to view the silly mural.

I believe the wise course now is for the American-Israel pavilion to issue a pamphlet to all visitors urging them to see the Jordanian-bad-taste mural. In this pamphlet the Israelis ought to reproduce the authenticated radio broadcasts of the Arab leaders in 1948 in which they urged the Arabs of Palestine to flee Israel temporarily, to get out of the line of fire, at least until the Israelis were pushed into the Mediterranean.

I would also publish the facts that the Arabs, who did not heed this urgent threat, live in peace and security in Israel; in fact three Arabs are members of the Israeli Parliament.

Know The Negro

By AL DUCKETT

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller stood on a raised platform on the fifth floor of his national campaign headquarters, the hot lights of the television cameras beating down upon him. A plethora of microphones were standing on or attached to the speakers stand. Scores of newsmen, photographers, radio and newsreel people were in front of him.

The Governor was making his second appearance here within the span of 13 hours. The night before, he had come to face the media as California piled up Republican primary votes which seemed to give an unsurmountable lead to his opponent, Sen. Barry Goldwater.

One of the networks had predicted that the Senator was the winner. Virtually everyone believed the Governor could not come from behind. The Governor refused to believe it.

The following morning, the world learned that he had come from behind and renewed hope grew in the hearts of his supporters. But this was not to be the final story. When the votes began coming in from Los Angeles County, Goldwater, once again, had amassed an impressive lead.

Those who expected the Governor to show disappointment as he went through the grim business of conceding defeat, were in for a surprise. He was

CRUMBLING OF A BARRIER

A historical barrier to the passage of Civil Rights legislation crumbled last week when the U.S. Senate voted 71 to 29 to invoke cloture which limited the debate on the current Civil Rights legislation to one hour each for senators. Leader of the Southern filibuster, Senator George Russell of Georgia, has already given aid and comfort to would-be violators of law when he said "it will require the U.S. Army to enforce the Civil Rights bill if it becomes law."

Senator Russell said that the "right to use private property as the owner sees fit is so ingrained in Americans of Irish-English blood until they will not surrender this traditional right."

The senator's statement violates the letter and the spirit of the Constitutional which he swore to uphold. It is unfortunate that a man as brilliant as Senator Russell is so blinded by racial prejudices until he has the unmigrating gall to promote property rights over human rights. He does a disservice to our form of democratic government when he even suggests that some who disfavor the passage of the Civil Rights bill should violate it if it becomes law through our democratic process.

75-DAYS OLD

The issue is not black Americans versus white Americans—but it is a moral and spiritual issue of justice, equality and freedom for all Americans. Segregation, prejudice and discrimination based solely on color is wrong.

A breakdown of the vote for cloture was 44 Democrats and 27 Republicans voted for it, 33 Democratic and six Republicans voted against it. The vote required only 11 minutes to "gag" the 75-day-old filibuster.

Senator Russell and all other persons who aide an abett racial prejudices are directly responsible for breeding crime, illegitimacy, ignorance, and welfare cases. To deny Negroes or any other minority racial group in America equal opportunities relegate them to a life of ignorance, poverty and frustrations—doomed to a miserable life on some public welfare agency's roll.

BILL WILL PASS

Property rights can never be as important as human rights. Men own property but nobody own men. Man was not created by God to be used as chattel. The worth of the individual and the interrelation of men's actions on each other must be mutual benefit or conflict will result.

Where in the holy Bible or in the U.S. Constitution can the Russells, the Eastlands, the Talmadges, justify the moral and legal right that a man who wishes can use his property to serve the public and make his living by doing so — yet he discriminate that public according to color. No man has the moral right to use his private property to crash the dignity of another man, to subject him to inhumane treatment. No man has the moral right to require a black man to turn white to be accorded equal service in public accommodations, public schools, and tax-supported institutions.

Jackie Robinson Says

Terror Acts Hurt Cause

Within the past few weeks, acts of violence and vandalism on the part of Negro youngsters in Harlem and Brooklyn have commanded the headlines of the daily press.

Notwithstanding the fact that the newspapers seem to have gone out of their way to project these highly regrettable incidents, the fact cannot be either denied or ignored that there is fire behind this smoke.

It is well and good for us to protest against the sensationalism — and in some cases — distortion which has been projected by the press, we neither can nor should we try to sweep under the rug the ugly reality which is staring us in the face.

Youngsters will be youngsters and juvenile delinquency and crime exists among whites as well as among Negroes. It is also true that Negroes as well as white people have been the victims of Negro crime.

Yet, this is beside the point. We are living in a most delicate and dangerous atmosphere. We are at crisis point in our struggle for civil rights and the realization of the aims of the Negro Revolution. We cannot afford to give anyone—supposed friend of known foe — ammunition with which to snipe against this momentous crusade against racial injustice.

I wish I could have a heart-to-heart, man-to-man talk with some of the youngsters who, by their blindly reckless acts, are endangering the freedom struggle.

I would tell them that they are playing right into the hands of the enemy. I would tell them that they are alienating from our cause people of good will who could bring something of value to our search for freedom.

I would say to them frankly that no one who is sincere about freedom will desert the fight because of isolated instances which are exaggerated in the press. But I would point out to them that, whether or not anyone is justified in deserting the cause for this spurious reason, the fact is that this is what is happening.

I would say to them that, first and foremost, they are doing themselves great harm, destroying their own lives and injuring their own personalities. I would say next that they are hurting the image of the community in which they live. I would remind them that they are bringing grief to their families and friends.

I would add that they are violating the basic principle of the good life by striking out at people who are, in the main, innocent people.

I would tell these kids that they are hurting our chances of winning the greatest goal which a people have ever sought to attain.

I would point out to them that they are stomping brutally on the graves of the Birmingham kids, on the soil beneath which a Medgar Evers and a John Kennedy sleep, the sleep of martyrdom.

I would say that they are building the links in a chain which could hold their children to come and their children's children in the grip of the same slavery of segregation from which we now seek to break loose.

I do not believe there is any organized hate movement among the Negro people. That is one lesson, thank God, that we have failed to imitate despite the example set for us by the white man.

Portugal And Africa

If the report that is now abroad is true, then there is some justification for the view that some progress is in the making with regard to the bitter conflict between Portugal and her African colonies.

The government at Lisbon is said to have called on independent African states to talk over the problems of preserving peace and security on their continent.

The Portuguese proposal was made in response to a recent move by Africans at the United Nations to resume informal talks on the question of Portugal's African possessions.

The talks with the Portuguese were broken off last October when the participants were unable to reach an agreement over the meaning of self-determination.

The Africans contended that self-determination meant self-rule, unconditional sovereignty or complete independence. This is the meaning that has been attributed to the term in modern times. In the parlance of the political scientist, self-determination confers upon a people the right to organize and regulate their own form of government.

Portugal, however, took the view that self-determination implied freedom for Angola, Mozambique and other overseas territories to remain integral parts of Portugal.

The two interpretations are not entirely incompatible. There is plenty ground for reconciliation. It is this possibility that has finally caused the two sides to renew their discussions of the issues that have threatened world peace in the last three years.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

On Tuesday, June 9th three students were refused admittance at the Leslie M. Stratton YMCA because they were from New York, and two of them were on their way to Mississippi. The Desk Clerk suspected that two of the students were planning to participate in the Mississippi Summer Project, and told the students "your kind are not wanted here." Clearly, this action was not consistent with national YMCA policy. First, guests at a YMCA should not be required to say where they are going; and second, where a person is going should be irrelevant to his obtaining lodging at a YMCA.

Considering these facts and the fact that the Desk Clerk was acting without authority, I advised the two students with me that we should remain in the YMCA until the situation was corrected. Upon informing the Desk Clerk of our decision, he threatened to call the police. We remained in the lobby.

I called Mr. Johnny C. Alexander, Metropolitan General Secretary, to request his advice and assistance. He agreed that the Clerk's refusal to admit us was not in accord with YMCA policy; and he promised to check into the situation. Finally, two of us were given rooms. I was refused again, this time because I had "caused trouble." If patient perseverance in the face of injustice is "causing trouble," I hope I never tire of causing this kind of trouble. The Clerk then refused to accept a $10 American Express Travelers Check and forced the boys to pay cash; the boys were also told that they were confined to the floor their room was on and the lobby. It is clear that this kind of action neither represents the spirit nor helps to achieve the purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The incident discussed above served to remind again of the painfully unjust and shamefully un-Christian policy of racial segregation which all but one of the YMCAs in our city maintain, even while privately owned hotels and motels are opening their facilities to all people. I still hope and firmly believe that an organization like the YMCA can lead the community in such progress, and so grow to become what its high and noble purpose calls it to be.

At a time when our city has decided not to open the public pools again this summer, is it not possible, and even necessary, that the Young Men's Christian Association open its facilities to everyone on a non-discriminatory basis, and to help to paint the way toward a new Memphis, where the barriers between black people and white people will be broken down and all people will work together to build a city of love and understanding.

Respectfully,

AN OPEN LETTER

Mr. O. Z. Evers
 445 Tillman St.
 Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Mr. Evers:

On April 30, 1964, this writer asked and demanded that you give the Sanitation Department employees your political and moral support. On May 1964, to the Tri-State Defender you said—quote "I am still willing to help the Sanitation Department organize."

Mr. Evers, I, Rev. J. C. Richardson, past president of the Unity League and a bonafide charter member of the executive board of the Unity League, ask you this: Why did you ignore my telephone calls and registered letters? Why did you ignore the many telephone calls and telegrams from Mr. Thomas O. Jones, president of the Independent Workers Association? Why did you ignore the telephone calls from Mr. Bill Ross, executive secretary-treasurer of the Memphis AFL-CIO Labor Council, in regard to organizing of the Sanitation Department?

Mr. Evers, do you remember the commitments Commissioner Sisson made at our meeting in regard to organized labor in the Sanitation Department? I ask you what deals and commitments did you and Commissioner Sisson make outside of the Unity League meeting?

Mr. Evers, are you a political leader that is afraid to work with the other political leaders and organizations? Will you wait until we have endorsed candidates this year and will you endorse the same ones so you can say "Me To?" Mr. Evers, I say you are a "Me To and A Yes, Yes" political leader.

Signed
 Rev. J. C. Richardson

 Memphis, Tenn.

TRAVEL TIME
It's that time again, when the trend is to travel, and our scribe, Marjorie Ulen, her daughter, Lynne, and her father, Charles-les, Sr., took off Friday for a summer filled with school and entertainment as only New York can offer. In the meantime it will be my pleasure to sub for Marge. Summer study has beckoned to Mrs. Bernice Calloway who is at Indiana University studying toward her Ph.D. in less than a year. Mrs. Bernice Cole is working on her master's at the University of Southern Illinois.

"Elegant Miss Mose Yvonne Brooks, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. P. E. Brooks, will receive her master's at the end of the summer from Columbia University. Well-known Mrs. Anderson Bridges who is studying at Tennessee A&I State University was home over the weekend to visit with her spouse and children and brought home houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunter and their two children, Mickey and Harold, Jr. Mr. Hunter is basketball coach at Tennessee State. Mrs. Esther Brown is also studying at Tennessee State University.

Dr. and Mrs. James S. Byas and their teenage daughter, Mave, winged off last week to Montclair, New Jersey where they were joined by their son, James Spencer Byas, who is a student at Dickinson College in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Byas and the children will remain there all summer with her aunt and Dr. Byas will be returning to his practice after a short respite.

Misses Marie and Helen Bradford are back after a week in Chicago where Helen had her interview for a teaching position in the Chicago Public School System. Helen, a graduate of LeMoine college, has taught for several years at Riverview Elementary School. She has a master's from the University of Chicago. We extend Helen our best wishes for her new job and city.

ATTEND GRADUATION
Mr. and Mrs. William Lowe are at home after having trekked off to Milford, Connecticut to see their son George graduate from Milford Prep School. Also attending the graduation which was held in the Christian and Congregational Church, was Mrs. Lowe's mother, Mrs. Minnie Brinkley. George will enter Illinois Wesleyan University in the fall.

Mrs. Harry T. Cash motored to California and other points West on a leisurely trip, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Roberts are off to South Haven, Michigan to attend the fiftieth wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davis.

Mrs. Mabel McNeary and her mother entertained with an al fresco party last Friday evening in the beautiful surroundings of their Neshoba road home in Germantown.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Volunteer State Medical Association will hold their meeting at the Sarah H. Brown Branch of the YWCA June 16-18 with State President Mrs. N. B. Callian of Chattanooga presiding.

Theme for the three-day meet is "Insure Our Future! Keep Interested, Informed, Involved."

Social activities for the ladies include luncheon at the Passport Room of the Metropolitan Airport, a card party on the spacious lawn of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Horne, luncheon at the Luau restaurant and a cocktail party at the Top Hat and Tails Clubhouse.

Highlighting Wednesday's program will be an address on "Capital Punishment" by Assistant United States Attorney C. O. Horton. Mrs. Leiland Atkins is chairman of the Executive Board and Mrs. G. W. Stanley Ish, Jr. is program chairman for the state meeting.

BRIDAL PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Sr., complimented the bridal party of their daughter, Miss Sarita Brown, and Ralph Johnson last Saturday evening at the Flame restaurant. The handsome young couple were married Sunday, June 14, at Mount Olive Cathedral.

Pink and green, the lovely young bride's sorority colors, were used in the decorations at the rehearsal dinner, and the tables were garnished with green ivy and pink geraniums.

Guests attending the dinner were Mrs. Joe Alfred Young, a recent bride; Mrs. Narcissus Jones, Miss Gloria Massey, Alfred Brown, brother of the bride; Mrs. Ann Powell, of Louisville, Kentucky; Mrs. Mattye Tyus, Mrs. Ellen Beal, Laurel, Miss; Noble Sissle, Jr., of New York City; Miss Shirley Johnson of Waycross, Georgia; Mrs. Carolyn Johnson, Mrs. Gloria Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McArrou, Dennis Ezell, Mrs. Juanita Humphreys, Ronald Mitchell, all of Orlando, Florida.

Rip Signs From Texas Civil Rights Backers

AUSTIN, Texas — (UPI) — Demonstrators demanding teeth for a "voluntary compliance" civil rights law had signs ripped from their hands by police at a city council meeting and provoked a quarrel between council members. Councilman Louis Shanks walked out because other council members turned down his demand that the Negroes be thrown out.

There were no arrests. The demonstration was led by Booker T. Bonner, civil rights leader and successful candidate for county commissioner.

With him were four women, three teen-agers and six small children. When the council convened, they raised signs reading: "We want an effective ordinance that covers these areas: (1) Job opportunities (2) Education (3) Housing (4) Public Accommodations." The council already has passed one civil rights ordinance, but there are no penalties attached. In addition, six to a human relations committee of seven persons appointed tee set up by the ordinance refused to serve.

Shanks said the signs should be removed to "maintain an atmosphere of dignity," but the demonstrators refused to hand over the signs, and 10 policemen took them by force.

The demonstrators then turned their backs to the council and began praying. The council returned to its deliberations, but Shanks interrupted to ask that the demonstrators be thrown out. "As long as they are quiet," said Mrs. Emma Long, a council member, "I don't see what's wrong with it."

First Negro For Methodist Post

MADISON, N. J. — (UPI) — Methodist Bishop Lloyd of Wick appointed a Negro as Superintendent of the Metropolitan District of the New York Methodist Conference.

It marked the first time a Negro has been appointed to a full six-year term in the predominantly white district.

Appointed superintendent was the Rev. Dr. Charles A. Warren, former pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church in New York City. His territory will include 57 churches in Manhattan, the Bronx and Westchester County.

The appointment marked the second top post that has gone to a Negro in the week-long meeting that ended at Drew University.

The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Carinton, pastor of Brooks Memorial Methodist Church, Jamaica, N.Y., was named executive secretary of the board of missions and church extension of the conference.

Piano Students To Audition At Owen

Seven piano students of the E. L. Cole's Piano Studio at 1003 S. Orleans street, have registered as candidates for membership in the National Fraternity of Student Musicians, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers.

To be heard in auditions at Owen college are Frederic Brooks, Daisy Metcalf, Clarice Gordon, Ella Yvonne Lake, Ruth Richardson, Sandra Lake and Joy Harvey.

The students will perform in the presence of an examiner of note from another state.

Swinging Duke, Count, Benny Packing 'Em In At Disneyland

By EDWARD O'CONNOR

ANAHEIM, Calif. — (UPI) — Whatever happened to the big bands of the 1940's? Walt Disney's hired four of them!

Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Count Basie and Wayne King literally are packing them in at Disneyland.

The four all-time greats of the band business got together last Saturday at the Disneyland Hotel to receive coveted Mousker Awards — a Mickey Mouse version of television's Emmy and Hollywood's Oscar. Also honored with a Mousker Award were the Elliott Brothers, whose band now is in its seventh season at Disneyland.

This weekend kicked off the third annual big band festival at Disneyland. After the award ceremony, the bandleaders retired to their respective stands throughout the park. They'll be here nightly through Wednesday.

Benny Goodman and his band were playing at the 20,000 Leagues dance area in Tomorrowland. A veteran of 30 years, Goodman still qualifies as the "King of Swing." Smooth or jumpy, he appears to be the top attraction with both the older and younger generations. He had both groups clapping their hands and tapping their toes.

A few yards away, at the space bar, Count Basie had a standing-room-only crowd — mostly young adults — beating time frantically to his inimitable jazz.

In another part of the park, waltz king Wayne King had the youngsters and oldsters gliding across the floor of the Plaza Gardens to the sweet, smooth strains of such numbers as "The Waltz You Saved For Me."

Over at the Golden Horseshoe Saloon in Frontierland, the ageless Duke Ellington held teen-agers and their parents spellbound with one composition after another, many of his own. Outside the non-alcoholic saloon, couples were lined up for 100 yards waiting to get inside.

Disney brought in name bands about three years ago as part of his date at Disneyland program, aimed at giving Southern California's teen-agers a wholesome place to go.

VACATION TIME

Vacation time is here and many have begun to spend it in various ways; some for play, some for study and work and others for just plain rest. Mrs. Bertha Collins left last week for Washington, D. C., and Baltimore where she will spend a few days before resuming her summer duties on the playground. Other teachers working on the playground are Mrs. Bobbie L. Pettis, Mrs. Cleo Boyd, Roy David Manuel and A. D. Hardy, Little League baseball supervisor.

Among the city teachers off to study are T. R. White and James Lairy, Peabody in Nashville; Mrs. M. B. Davis, Indiana University; Clifford Minor and A. J. Payne, Jr., Southern Illinois University; Mrs. Anita Spicer, Tennessee A&I State University, and Mrs. Hazel Minor, Lane college.

Attending the three weeks Curriculum Building workshop at Tennessee A&I State University are Mesdames Vivian Bell, Beulah Neilson, Sarah Barnes and Mattie Miliken from the Jackson City system and Mrs. Freddie Booth from Madison County.

Slated to complete her work for the master's degree in supervision at Tennessee A&I State university this summer is Mrs. Juanette Beasley.

IN HOOSIER STATE

When Mrs. Davis left for Indiana University this week, she was accompanied by her husband who plans to spend a two weeks vacation and their daughter, Gwendolyn, a fifth grader, who will be enrolled on the campus in the Enrichment Program for K through 12 grades. The emphasis on her grade level will be creativity.

Lane College teachers who will be away studying are Mrs. Catherine Taylor at Indiana University; Mrs. Fannie Porter at the University of Wisconsin; W. E. Jackson at the University of Colorado; Jessie Dorsett, Carnegie Institute of Technology; W. Haliburton at the University of North Carolina and North Carolina State, and C. O. Epps, University of Oregon.

SIGHTSEEING TOURS

On the sightseeing side, Mrs. Alene Maney left following school closing for Cleveland, Ohio where she joined her sister, Mrs. Lucille Churcher, and friend, Miss Ruby Finger, along with a party of six to attend the New York World's Fair. Other stops are planned before she returns.

Also already enroute with the World's Fair as the destination are Miss Claudine Bledsoe and her sister, Mrs. Gracie Bledsoe Williamson.

Leaving for Winston-Salem, N. C., this week, which is "home sweet home," is Mrs.

YWCA MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

Making plans for the current membership drive for the Sarah Brown branch of the YWCA at 1044 Mississippi blvd. are the above veteran workers. Seated from left are Miss Elizabeth Goldsby, Mrs. Geneva Hicks, Mrs. Lois Greenwood, chairman of the drive; Mrs. Hilda Helm and Mrs. Narcissa Jones. Standing, same order, are Mrs. Pearl Jefferson, Mrs. P. F. Carruthers, Mrs. Effie Satterfield, Mrs. Lilla Hall, Mrs. Anna Owen and Mrs. Addie G. Owen, branch director. (Withers Photo).

YWCA Branch Conducts Drive For New Members

The membership committee effort this month to encourage women to join or renew their membership in the YWCA, according to Mrs. Lois Greenwood, Membership Chairman.

The Association has always been a community asset working to help build a stronger and better community through its service to the people of Memphis.

Mrs. Greenwood pointed out that, "Day after day, evenings, too, the YWCA is filled with people of all age groups, all busily and happily engaged in activities that increase their own growth and development in programs which build character and in projects of community service, all of which contribute toward making our city a better place in which to live."

Although women may join the YWCA at any time of the year, the Membership Committee places special emphasis on the Spring and early Summer months as enrollment time. Members of the Committee stressed the fact that the YWCA has enriched the lives of women and girls in our community with its positive program for effective citizenship.

"The YWCA also is a center for recreation and various leisure-time activities where people of all ages, classes and backgrounds can meet for fun and fellowship and find friendships with others," one of the members said.

Women of Memphis are urged to go by the office at 1044 Mississippi and join this outstanding organization with its special program to teenagers and adults, including young wives and mothers. Its classes, cultural and interest groups and civic projects all help build a better community by strengthening and developing the potentials of the individuals.

Members of the Committee are Mrs. Lois Greenwood, chairman; Mrs. Geneva Williams, former chairman; Mrs. Hilda Helm, Mrs. Eva Hamilton, Mrs. P. F. Carruthers, Mrs. Leora Gunter, Miss Elizabeth Goldsby, Mrs. Geneva Hicks, Mrs. Ruthie Henderson, Mrs. Marcissa Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, Mrs. Mary Lou Taylor, Mrs. Willie Pegues, Mrs. A. M. ## HUMBOLDT NEWS

PULASKI MEET

The Tennessee Federation of Colored Women's Clubs met in Pulaski, Tenn. with Mesdames Olga Vern Bakerville, Drucilla Tuggle, Carrie Seat, Jennie S. Vance and Dorothy Gentry representing the clubs of Humboldt.

All were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sims of that city. Mrs. Sims is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sims of Humboldt, and with Mrs. Avant with the bunch the visit proved to be a real home affair, with those lovely young people leaving no stone unturned to make the home folk happy, in their beautiful home on the hill. The meeting was without a doubt the best from all standpoints. The fellowship was outstanding and the program inspirational.

BANKS FETE VISITORS

The First National Bank of Pulaski entertained the group with a barbecue and all the trimmings at their drive-in bank and served more than 200 people. It was a sight to be seen.

The Union Bank provided each delegate with a box to eat on their way home.

Mrs. Emma Donald, her two daughters, Mrs. Velva Pulliam and Martha Lacey with Mrs. Elizabeth Ballard came for the last day. They also brought little Donald and Marva Baskerville.

Humboldt was well represented as the main address for the opening night was given by Mrs. W. S. Vance, who spoke on "Lifting as We Climb."

MORE NEWS

Miss Dorothy Reid has been visiting her parents after having completed her internship in the Jewish Hospital in St. Louis where she will continue to work as a technician.

Mrs. M. H. Burnett lost her brother, Mr. Hunter Sykes of the Jackson, Tenn. community. He was the father of 12 children, he was buried last week with funeral services from the Union Hill C.M.E. Church in Jackson. Mrs. Burnett is the wife of Rev. M. H. Burnett.

Mr. Willie MacInn the husband of Mrs. Lena MacInn passed and the funeral will be held from Lane Tabernacle C.M.E. Church where he had been a faithful member for some years. Miss Funeral Home was in charge.

The nephew of Rev. W. S. Vance, Mr. Luke Anderson of Chicago, passed suddenly and will be buried there.

Medic Asso. Gets Woman Prexy

Dr. Clara A. Brawner became the first woman to be elected president of the Volunteer State Medical Association when she was presented the gavel Tuesday morning during the opening session of the 60th annual convention being held at E. H. Crump hospital in the school of nursing.

The convention will continue until Thursday at noon. Speakers include Doctors Glenn Clark, Ralph Braund, Albert M. Alexander, John M. Wilson, Waldo Cain, L. W. Diggs, Phil C. Schreier, E. W. Reed and Earle L. Wren.

PUT A TIGER IN YOUR TANK!

NEW POWER-FORMULA ESSO EXTRA GASOLINE BOOSTS POWER THREE WAYS:

1 Cleaning Power! Dirt can clog even a new carburetor in a few months of normal operation—causing hard starting and rough idling. Your very first tankful of New Esso Extra will start to clear away these deposits—in new engines or old—to improve power and mileage.

2 Firing Power! Spark plug and cylinder deposits can cause misfiring, pre-ignition and hot spots. New Esso Extra neutralizes these harmful deposits—to help your engine fire smoothly, to help preserve the power of new cars and restore lost power to many older cars.

3 Octane Power! New Esso Extra has the high octane that most cars now need for full smooth performance without knocking. You'll get all these extras with New Power-formula Esso Extra gasoline—it puts a tiger in your tank!

A GOOD START

In the civil rights struggle, local leaders have vowed that Memphis will profit by the mistakes of her Southern neighbors. Except for a few arrests during the embryonic stage of the Crusade for Human Dignity, government officials, invested with the power to promote the general welfare and seek tranquility for all of its citizenry, have kept their pledge.

It's highly improbable, even with the road to total equality still under construction, that Memphis will ever get the adverse publicity that sent the prestige of many segregationist strongholds into fatal nose dives. The blood shed in Little Rock, Birmingham and Jackson, Miss., and the punitive damages inflicted upon thousands in the minority in those cities, have been so intensely dramatized that historians will have little trouble putting together volumes about their leaders' cowardice in dealing with the eventuality of integration.

JUST ANOTHER GAME

Perhaps if you were not in attendance at the Fairgrounds a few Sundays ago, it's a good chance that the Sabbath night

Golf Tourney Slated Here On June 20-21

The Sam Qualls Golf club will present its fifth annual Open Golf Tournament at T. O. Fuller Park June 20-21, and will include a 36-hole medal play. The public is invited.

A Beginners' Golf clinic for children between the ages of seven and 15 will begin at the course on Monday, June 22.

Persons wanting more information about the tournament or the clinic may contact Robert Crawford, business manager of the club, at 946-8980.

Sam Qualls, Jr., is president of the club.

was just another day on the calendar. The playing of the first inter-racial baseball contest between Bill Speros and the Negro Prep League All-Stars went off so smoothly that you might have had to be reminded of its historical significance.

Speros, finalist in the National American Legion Tournament last year, took advantage of some poor All-Stars' fielding to score a 6-1 victory. The Speros group was led by Tony Gagliano, astute Prep baseball leader that coached CBC to the TSSAA state high school championship early in June.

Several of his CBC players were on the Speros roster, but it was a pair of flame throwing college freshmen pitchers that spelled defeat for the Negro Prep Leaguers, handled by W. O. Little of Douglass and Bill Fowkes of Booker T. Washington.

Gary Eastburn, a rangy righthander from Christian Brothers college, and southpaw Bill Schroepfel of Wake Forest struck out 17 batters, while yielding only one hit. The visitors didn't have a picnic at the plate either, managing only three hits off starter James Eubanks. Eubanks, the tall strong-armed lefty who compiled a 10-0 record last year to help lead Douglass to the Prep League crown, was a freshman hurler the past season in the Southwest Conference with Arkansas State.

EUBANKS WHIFFS 11

Speros got a good jump on its rivals by scoring three runs in the first inning without the ball being hit out of the infield. Four throwing errors got the All-Stars in the hole. Eubanks settled down to fire third strikes by 11 Speros' hitters.

The All-Stars scored one run in the fifth, to pull within striking distance but poor defensive work allowed the American Legion team to tally insurance runs in the eighth and ninth innings. The last run came off Robert Jones of Carver, who pitched the ninth frame.

Schroepfel choked off a Prep League rally in the ninth, but not before Charles Winfrey had lined the single to right for the All-Stars' only hit. The fireballing Schroepfel fanned the side the two innings he was on the mound.

The All-Stars sent 16 players into action against Speros. On two occasions, All-Stars players claimed they had been hit by pitched balls. In each case, plate umpire Bill Scheele ruled otherwise. Prentice Lyons of Douglass, was nicked in the first inning and had to be replaced in the fifth after complaining of the pain in his left hand. Umpire Scheele, the claim was legitimate; X-ray film taken after the game, revealed a fractured metacarpal bone.

Busy Throat

Your throat is a busy place. Every 15 seconds air swishes through at 10 mph; a sneeze or cough rips through at a speed that may reach 200 mph. About 3,000 gallons of oxygen and carbon dioxide pass through; we swallow about 3,000 times a day.

PRIZE WINNING BRIUM

Prize winning brium is being held-up by nine-year-old Wayne Lake, who is seated on the bike he won for catching the longest brium during the Bluff City Jaycee Fishing Rodeo held at Barbee's Lake last Saturday. Standing behind Wayne is his father, Clyde Lake of 310 Flynn Rd. Kneeling at the left is Ernest Young, president of the Jaycees. At the right is Rufus R. Jones, chairman of the Fishing Rodeo. In the background are some of the other 40 prize winners, including Harold Galloway, 6, who caught the second longest fish; Marvin D. Cash, 9, third place winner; Lawrence Johnson for catching the largest number, 32; Sandra Bointa Anthony, 28; and Nathan Flowers, 26. Winning prizes for catching the heaviest strings, were Llewlyn Robinson, first place; Gene Standard, second; and Ronnie Mason, third place. Hot dogs and soft drinks were served to the estimated 400 youngsters participating in the five-hour long rodeo. Donating the winners was Oliver Johnson of the Nat Buring Packing company; Mr. Cruz of the Wonder Bread company supplied the buns; Bonita Casem of the Pepsi Cola Bottling company donated the soft-drinks; Dattel Real estate company contributed $25. Prizes were obtained from L. A. Doty of Sears Third Street branch; and Hudson Barbee permitted the fishing without charges. (Photo by Henry Ford).

HONORED AS GREAT SALESMEN

Charles V. Jones, center, of Capitol Wines and Liquor company, Chicago, and Leslie Green, right, of the Pioneer Liquor company, St. Louis, Mo., are seen congratulating each other at a dinner marking their election to the Old Taylor Hall of Fame in Taylorton, Ky., as W. K. Harnew, left, vice president in charge of the Central region of National Distillers, adds his congratulations. The two salesmen were among 19 of 2,500 across the nation who competed for the honor. Jones and Green attended college together and had not seen each other for more than 20 years.

2 Warnings From Negro Leaders

NEW YORK — (UPI) — A woman attorney said that here fellow Negroes were as much to blame for their own plight as were the "white majority."

Mrs. Cora Walker, a Republican candidate for the New York State Senate, charged that the Negro "has failed to develop the necessary leadership which is essential for people to live together and function as a constructive, enlightened, progressive group of people."

Mrs. Walker pointed out that only 20 per cent of the Negroes in Harlem were registered to vote and that a "significant percentage of those do not take the time to vote."

Noting that about one million live in New York City, she said "we Negroes have no restrictions on our voting rights or on our determination come from the Negro himself."

She deplored the Negro "who insists that someone else develop the ideas, construct the factories, supply the materials, turn on the lights and then, look for him to give him a job."

Coin Centennial

The inscription "In God We Trust," first appeared on a U.S. coin, the 2c piece, in 1864. It wasn't until 1955, however, that the 84th Congress assigned the phrase to all U.S. currency and made it the national motto.

Special Coach For Delegates Attending BTU

The Progressive National Sunday and Baptist Training Union Congress is scheduled to hold a convention June 22-24 in Chicago at Pilgrim Baptist church.

A special air-conditioned coach has been obtained for the Memphis delegation attending the convention. Delegates are requested by Rev. L. S. Sorrell of 237 Holland Ave. to be at the train station at 1 p.m. Monday, June 22. The coach number is 4-A.

For further information call Rev. L. S. Sorrell at 946-4060 or 946-9453.

He Was Noted For Sign Painting

Funeral services for Howard Tennyson Holmes, Sr., 615 Harrell St. was held at New Tylene AME church, Sunday (May 30). Officiating was Rev. Lois Patrick. Interment was in Galilee Memorial Gardens under direction of Southern Funeral home.

Mr. Holmes, a commercial artist, was the owner of the H. T. Holmes Sign Company in Birmingham. He died suddenly at Crump hospital on May 25, however he had been in failing health for a period of time.

A graduate of Booker T. Washington high school, he had studied art at LeMoyn College for a short period. He had painted signs for some of the biggest local firms, restaurants, furniture companies, etc., as well as such celebrities as Elvis Presley and Marva Louis, the ex-wife of Joe Louis, when he worked in Chicago.

Mr. Holmes was the son of the late Frank H. Holmes, one-time owner of the well known Holmes Park on Summer Ave., now defunct.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ophelia Holmes, a son, Howard, Jr., a daughter Claire, his mother, Mrs. Clara Holmes, two sisters, Mrs. Edith Robinson, Miss Mattie L. Holmes, two brothers, Frank, Jr. and Clarence Holmes, and a niece.

Miss. Hoodlums Attack COFO's Headquarters

JACKSON, Miss. — Two carloads of white hoodlums descended upon the headquarters of the Mississippi Council of Federated Organizations here, on the night of June 1, and broke all the windows with bricks and stones.

One office worker was cut by flying glass. The others fled to the floor to avoid the shattered glass, bricks and stones.

The attack occurred late on the night before the Democratic party primary election in which four Negro candidates for Congress were entered. Charles Evers, NAACP field secretary for Mississippi, said that Jackson police showed little concern when the incident was reported to them. Also they ignored reports of a shotgun blast fired into a Negro's home the previous night.

COFO is the coordinating group for the registration drive begun conducted by four civil rights organizations in the state: NAACP, CORE, SCLC and SNCC.

2 Memphians To Share In Grant For Research

Two Memphis scientists have been named by the American Heart Association to receive support under a $3 1/2 million research program for the 12 months beginning July 1, according to Dr. Thomas N. Stern, President of Memphis Heart association.

The newly announced awards are part of a $10 million research effort that is being underwritten by the American Heart Association and its affiliates for the fiscal year 1964-65. Dr. Stern said. This research is supported entirely by public contributions to the Heart Fund in February.

Underscoring the urgency of research into causes and means of preventing heart and blood vessel diseases, Dr. Stern noted that "these diseases account for more than 54 per cent of deaths in the United States each year. Through their Heart Fund contributions, the people of Memphis and Shelby County are helping to cut down this toll."

Following are awards made in Memphis and Shelby County by the American Heart Association:

Receiving grants - in - aid were: Dr. Leo G. Horan of the University of Tennessee, $8,250. Previously he had received $22,000. Robert A. Woodbury of the University of Tennessee Medical Units, $7,700. Also a fellowship award was given Donald B. Zilver-smit.
